Company History

Mulumba Isaac is a Director of Umba Concepts Limited. He is the driving force behind the company, a man with a vision to create a venerable business of excellence. He spearheads the company's management and operations directing it through its next phase of growth. With years of experience from his previous employer Newplan Limited and Per.Se. Architecture. He joined these companies where he has worked across a range of projects both urban areas and remote areas. His passion for creativity and innovation led him to startup his own company.

The company was originally purely an architectural design company founded in 2011 as Blancsley Limited dealing in a multitude of challenging architectural projects but it has expanded its scope of services over the years which led to the establishment of Umba Concepts Limited in 2015. Umba is a Swahili word meaning to design/create. It's a Ugandan architectural, interior designing, landscape and construction company. We have built a reputation for delivering innovative solutions in the remodeling, designing homes and boutiques. Since the primary focus has been upon serving various individuals through this we have developed a customer business philosophy.

Today we are committed to delivering exceptional project performance to ensure the success of our clients, as well as growing the most capable people in the industry. As we look back with pride on the successful projects of our employees past, we remain keenly aware that the challenges and accomplishments to come will further define the fundamental character of our company. We eagerly look forward to building that further as we continue to challenge ourselves to become and remain the very best in the industry.

Customer service oriented approach and working in the timeliest manner to provide services is the backbone of the company. We are team players highly organized and able to handle multi tasks simultaneously.

We pride ourselves on our ability to listen to our clients' needs and preferences, interpret these needs and then transform them into beautiful and comfortable places. Our attention to detail is key to making our homes and businesses place of "lived art".

Umba Concepts doesn't have a "signature style." We deliberately allow our clients' tastes and desires to direct the course of design. We strive to provide our clients with an interactive design experience. We find that through this process our clients' partake in a creative and thought provoking experience that results in a unique well crafted and beautiful place.

With the new engineering developments and challenges in the field of architecture and construction the demand of these services is on the rise. With exponential growth in construction demand, we are fully equipped to face the challenges of tomorrow.

The success story of Umba is in line with a vision of state of art, hard work with dedicated and qualified teams having a professional background, vision and innovative skills. We believe 'detail' is our success story, whether it is through first understanding our client's needs or understanding how the building will be used.

Sustainable construction practices attempt to minimize the impact that the building process, as well as the operation of the complete building has on the environment.

At Umba Concepts Limited we work with architects, interior designers, engineers and our clients to design and construct eco-friendly buildings and facilities. Our strength lies in our ability to understand costs, materials and constructability issues associated with sustainable construction practices. It's combined with our proven execution in the field, enables owners to measure the effective performance of their building on the bottom line, delivers a healthy environment for the users, and minimizes the impact on the environment.
